Crypto Influencer Marketing

Influencer marketing is a key part of a successful crypto marketing strategy. Tapping influencers as advocates for your project is a great way to leverage their audiences to grow awareness and build third-party validation among potential customers and investors. We have selected the best influencers as partners, at an affordable price. Here is what we offer in this package:

Ivan On Tech

He is the real deal. He is a software developer from Sweden and an International blockchain speaker. He eats, sleeps, breathes blockchain technology. He takes a deeper dive into each cryptocurrency technologies and explaining some of the uphill battles Bitcoin will have to survive. He has an eBook available on his website, which we urge you to download.
